

ETS Sample Thesis's

Therefore -----represents the Victorian Literary Period because of his consistent use of pastoral imagery in Death by Marks which is a common attribute of this literary period.

Thus -----is an excellent example of the Romantic Literary period because of her advocacy of women's independence, in the novel, Men Suck, which was characteristic of the literary period in which the author lived.

In the novel Women are Crazy, ----- truly reflects the Modern Literary period because of his emphasis of a disjointed plot, doubtful perspectives on traditional marriages, religion and sexuality which is a common theme of the literature written during the author's life.

Therefore ----- is a representative of the Post-Modern literary period because of his vivid use of symbols of death and destruction caused by war which was a very important issue during the life of the author.

The novel truly represents the 1960's because the author has clearly establishes an antiwar theme which was an important topic during this decade.

The author clearly reflects a strong feminist perspective in the text which was a very important motif of the literature during her life. (This book was all about why high heels are inappropriate fashion accessories because it reinforces the sub servitude nature of women to fashion which is dictated by men.)