

Structure of Presentation

Introduction: ( Tell'em what you're going to tell them!!!)

- something about your author and the texts you've studied
- Method of Development ( The Presentation of your material!)
  - a) the main theme of each piece of literature
  - b) How each poem fit the characteristics of a piece of literature written in the Romantic Period
- Thesis:

Body of Presentation (The Details)

- a) Text #1-
  - Points a and b
- b) Text #2-
  - Points a and b
- c) Text #2-
  - Points a and b

Conclusion: (Tell'em what you've told'em!)

Restate your intro and leave the reader with something profound about the author/text!!!

- Method of Development (The Presentation of your material!)
  - c) the main theme of each piece of literature
  - d) How each poem fit the characteristics of a piece of literature written in the Romantic Period
- Thesis: